Police Ad Hoc Committee Report

- Levine stated they have come up with more questions and gaps. There are a lot of unknowns. McMillan asked what her gut feeling was—she replied a lot of people would like our own police department. Ritter responded it is not just a gut feeling. The police department budget relies on Current Expense Funds and it is not a stable source of income. There are many things needed, a new building, new fleet of vehicles, wages. It is just not feasible.
- Maybe a feasibility study needs to be done however that could be costly. Should we ask the community what is missing by not have a police department?
